Supreme Welsh Exhibit (Len Peck Memorial Trophy)

H.L. PECK (1918-1983) - SUPREME WELSH EXHIBIT

Len peck's childhood years were spent on a property at Moama NSW where horses were a way of life. His love of ponies continued through the years but it was not until 1963 that Len purchased the Welsh Mountain Colt, "Nattai Moosprite", he with several Nattai mares and at a later date Nattai Borealis 2nd formed the basis of Len's Alkonie and Meadowmere Studs at Grasmere, north of Warrnambool. Len was a foundation member of the AWSB Society and gave many years' service as a committee member. He was a Royal Show, all Welsh Show, and APSB Society Judge, both in Victoria and interstate. Len peck or "Pecky", was a very successful exhibitor and was always willing to share his knowledge and expertise, but was a formidable opponent once in the show ring.
